Karin Dohm left Management Board of DB AG

Deutsche Bahn AG and Ms. Karin Dohm have mutually agreed to terminate their cooperation.

(Berlin, March 26, 2026) This decision is expressly not based on the allegations or conjectures discussed in public, which the Supervisory Board has dealt with in detail. Against the background of these discussions, there is no reason to withdraw confidence.

There are no doubts as to Ms. Dohm's professional qualifications, integrity or proper conduct in office.

The first months of cooperation were characterized by a phase of in-depth coordination regarding the structure of decision-making processes, responsibilities and control mechanisms. It became clear that there are different ideas about the future structure of the function and key issues of corporate development.

The Supervisory Board and the Management Board would like to expressly thank Ms. Dohm for her work and her contribution during a challenging phase for the company.

Deutsche Bahn AG wishes Ms. Dohm continued success for her professional and personal future.
